

Library – Birmingham New Books February 2009

	Title/Author/Abstract (Titles marked * are available in BVC Resources Room only)	Classmark
	J. Hörnle. Cross-border Internet Dispute Resolution. Seen as the offspring of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), information technology is the main tool used to resolve online disputes outside of the courts. This book sets out standards of compliance and shows how they can be implemented in real life situations as well as considering applicable law and enforcement.	ARBN
	R. Merkin. Colinvaux's Law of Insurance. 8th ed. Originally published in 1950, this text is based on the looseleaf title; Colinvaux & Merkin's Insurance Contract Law. Divided into three sections it covers all aspects of the contract of insurance, the parties and special types of insurance contract. It comes with a first supplement to the 8th edition.	BNFN
No Image Available	Alcock, Birds & Gale on the Companies Act 2006 Follows the structure of the CA 2006 and explains what stage the implementation process has now reached.	BUSN
	A. Brock. E-business: the practical guide to the laws. 2nd ed. Explains how EC Directives concerning E-commerce and electronic communications affect on-line trading and marketing. Also explains various contractual relationships as well as covering new requirements of the Companies Act 2006 concerning websites and email.	BUSN
	A. Young. Parliamentary Sovereignty and the Human Rights Act This book asserts that the principle of parliamentary legislative supremacy is sufficiently flexible to enable a stronger protection of human rights.	CNST
	A. Ezrachi & U. Bernitz ed. Private Labels, Brands and Competition Policy: the changing landscape of retail competition. The growth in sales and popularity of private labels (own brands) has risen in recent decades. This title examines both the benefits and disadvantages they bring to competition in the retail sector. It examines the subject in terms of law, economics and policy.	COMP

	M. Hall. Victims of Crime: Policy & practice in criminal justice Offers a model of ‘victim-centred’ criminal justice and examines – via interviews with barristers, solicitors and court administrators – the policy making process involved. It also draws on first-hand data gathered from some 300 English criminal trials.	CRIM
No Image Available	B. McSherry et al. Regulating Deviance: the redirection of criminalisation and the futures of criminal law Issues such as terrorism in light of September 11 2001, preventative detention regimes, sexual offences and the validity of various penal codes are discussed in this book which - in a time of increasing globalisation – takes an international view of criminal justice systems and questions the future directions they may need to take	CRIM
	A. Bradney. Law and Faith in a Sceptical Age. In the eyes of many the UK is viewed as a liberal and secular state, however it’s legal system does make concessions for religious believers though they constitute a minority of the population. The question asked by this text is whether current legislation is enough or whether further accommodation can and should be made	ELSM
	J. Palca & C. Taylor. Employment Law Checklists 2009. Pitched at those involved with employment law and/or human resources, this guide aims to be both practical and accessible. It features developments in equality legislation, family friendly laws, TUPE & workplace dispute resolution.	EMPL
No Image Available	C. Crifò. Cross-border Enforcement of Debts in the European Union. Despite efforts by the ECJ and other authorities to enforce orders for payment and other monetary obligations within the EU there is still difficulty in marrying such orders with the domestic legislation of member states. This title aims to shed light on a difficult but important area of European law.	EURP
	L. Hughes ed. Good Practice in Safeguarding Children: working effectively in child protection From a social care point of view, this title looks at examples of best practice in all manner of scenarios concerning child welfare. Contributors include social workers, nurses, lecturers and a family court advisor.	FMLY

	R. Blomfield & H. Brooks. A Practical Guide to Family Proceedings Offers step-by-step guidance on... the most common types of family law application. It acts as both an introductory guide for the less experienced and an at-a-glance text for practitioners. The new edition includes a new chapter on civil partnership applications.	FMLY
	M. Tushnet. The Constitution of the United States of America: a contextual analysis An introductory look at the history and current meaning of the US Constitution.	FORE
	T. Murphy ed. New Technologies and Human Rights Chapters on subjects ranging from Biotechnologies and Eugenics to privacy laws and genetics are explored in this collection of essays.	HUMN
No Image Available	M-C. Foblets ed. Multicultural Jurisprudence: Comparative perspectives on cultural defense Increased migration has resulted in ‘clashes’ between state & cultural law. This collection of essays brings together examples from Western Europe, North America and elsewhere. Cases ranging from honour crimes, asylum & family law are covered.	INTN
	C. Brown. A Common law of International Adjudication. Provides an examination of the jurisprudence of a range of international courts and tribunals relating to issues of procedure and remedies. It also offers an assessment of whether there are emerging commonalities regarding these issues which could make up a unified law of international adjudication.	INTN
	M. Sikand ed. Blackstone's Guide to The Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008. Another of the ubiquitous Blackstone's guides covering the latest changes to the Act since its earlier incarnations as the Criminal Justice acts of 1991 and 1993. This time around it covers issues such as Premises Closure and Violent Offender Orders as well as civil liberties. As ever, it includes a copy of the Act.	LITG. CRM

	D. Young et al. Abuse of Process in Criminal Proceedings. 3rd ed. This practitioner's guide covers all areas of the law concerning abuse of process in criminal law including delay, breach of promise, destroying evidence, entrapment and adverse publicity. This new edition updates case law which has developed over the last six years. Changes to double jeopardy, disclosure and non-disclosure, terrorism, extradition and confiscation proceedings are also covered.	LITG.CRM
	D. Corker & S. Parkinson. Disclosure in Criminal Proceedings. This title examines the progress of a case from beginning to end focusing on disclosure of the prosecutor's unused material. It includes chapters on expert evidence, public interest immunity and third party material. A number of protocols and other primary sources are consulted.	LITG.CRM
	D. Thomas. Sentencing Referencer 2009* Provides the reader with clear and practical guidance on over 100 different sentencing topics, laid out in A-Z format. Topics covered for the first time include the dangerous offender provisions of the CJA 2003 as amended by the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008; amendments to the Mental Health act 1983; and youth rehabilitation orders which are expected to come into force in 2009. This text can also be found in the looseleaf title: Current Sentencing Practice.	LITG.CRM*
	P. Stookes. A Practical Approach to Environmental Law. 2nd ed. In addition to issues ranging from air pollution to wildlife, this new edition includes new chapters on climate change and environmental permitting as well as expanded commentary on costs, access to justice, light pollution, town and village greens and environmental assessment.	PLNG
	S. Conrad et al. Longman Student Grammar of Spoken & Written English Workbook This book contains chapters on parts of a sentence; verbs, nouns, phrases and clauses etc as well as providing exercises	SKLL
	M. Manser. Penguin Writer's Manual This book bills itself as "the essential companion for anyone who wants to master the art of writing good English." From essay writing to sending an email to a colleague, it offers advice on grammar, usage, punctuation, style and using IT. It also includes a glossary of grammatical terms	SKLL

	A. Burt. Quick Solutions to Common Errors in English This A-Z guide to spelling, punctuation and grammar is written by an English teacher turned proofreader. Being an A-Z guide it is laid out like a dictionary with short entries.	SKLL
	M. Stone. Cross-examination in Criminal Trials. Now in its third edition this text examines strategy, tactics and persuasion in establishing the proof of facts. Divided into twelve chapters, after the initial introduction to cross-examination; chapters 2 – 4 deal with the criminal trial and evidence, whilst the remaining eight go into detail about cross-examination techniques and their application.	SKLL.ADV